

Mag. Maximilian Albert Müller, LL.M. is an Attorney-at-Law in the Dispute Resolution Team of Pitkowitz & Partners.

He specializes in advising and representing international clients in commercial litigation and arbitration proceedings as well as out-of-court dispute resolution. He has particular expertise in the assertion and defense against claims in commercial trade disputes, representing stakeholders in corporate disputes and investment cases. In doing so, he looks back on many years of successfully working with clients from a broad range of sectors and industries, including financial services, manufacturing and technology.

In addition, he has broad expertise in contract law, having advised on numerous (financing) transactions. Maximilian also regularly advises on corporate law matters.

Prior to joining Pitkowitz & Partners, he worked at renowned law firms in Vienna and, among others, as a volunteer at the Austrian Trade Commission in Hong Kong.

Maximilian holds law degrees from the University of Paris, Panthéon-Sorbonne (LL.M. with distinction cum laude) and the University of Vienna (Mag.iur.) and has passed the Austrian Bar Exam with distinction. He has authored numerous publications relating to his legal practice and has been repeatedly recognized by the German business newspaper Handelsblatt and Best Lawyers for his expertise in international arbitration.
